Innkeeper - Old Town Guesthouse

I've been lucky enough to have been involved in several very different fields. During my sales experience in Jewelry, I fell in love with both the development & design of jewelry from Department Stores to high-end Boutiques. After Covid, I stumbled into the role of corporate recruitment and am so happy to have landed here in Old Colorado City as an the Innkeeper for Old Town Guesthouse which has been one of the most rewarding - constantly meeting and engaging with so many different types of people, while keeping them happy along the way.

Since moving to OCC, I've had the experience of meeting an AMAZING network of incredible people. This is a town that has so much character while continuing to thrive bringing new ideas that can help and engage everyone.

Serving as a member of OCCA Board of Directors is a privilege and honor . What I think I bring to the table is positive energy, drive, willingness to work with others, attention to detail and new ideas from the Hospitality perspective.
